The cooperation with Testuj.to was well organized and professional. Everything was agreed on time and the testing itself took place according to a pre-determined plan. We appreciate the quick communication, warm approach and understanding in solving minor complications that arose. The testing brought us a lot of valuable insights and user reviews. We used the favorable ones in marketing, and the more critical ones helped us to further improve the product. Thanks to Testuj.to, we received feedback that allowed us to better understand our product not only from a customer perspective, but also from a business perspective.
